BIOGRAPHY

Name: Jeroen Sedelaar

Date of birth: 01 – 01 - 1981

Location: The Hague, The Netherlands

Style: Full-On

Label: Phantasm Records UK, Nutek Records NL

Jeroen (Dj Jibaro) is originally from Cape Town, South Africa. It was here in the summer of 1997 where he fell in love with the music and the scene. After going to numerous big outdoor parties he decided he wanted to do more with music than just party.

After moving to The Netherlands in March 2000 he started dj'ing. In January 2002 playing a Boom! party in Amsterdam he met well known Dj Junya(Eskimo), son of legend John Phantasm, who was impressed by his mixing skills and choice of music. After visiting Junya in the summer of 2003 in England he was given the opportunity to become label Dj for this legendary UK based label, Phantasm Records. Since then he has further developed his Dj'ing skills and selects only the best and unique tracks for his sets. His style changes depending on what time he plays but he always chooses to incorporate a wide variety of styles in his sets, loving funky electro breaks and massive build-ups.

2007 was a very exciting year for him as he had the opportunity to release his first compilation on Phantasm Records. This compilation promised to be packed with absolute class-A tracks from some of the most established artists in the scene today, as well as some very talented new comers. Recently he has also had the opportunity to join another top class label namely Nutek Records based in Amsterdam.
